EMERGENCY INSTRUCTIONS

Accident
Report the emergency. Give first aid. Stay with the victim.

Fire

Earthquake
Drop and take cover. Wait until the shaking stops to evacuate. Do not use elevators. Buildings will be examined before re-entry.

Power Outage
Most outages are resolved quickly. Wait for situation updates.

IF THERE IS AN EVACUATION
• Go to the nearest Emergency Assembly Point (EAP).
• Every SU building has an EAP.
• Nearest EAP
• Use a phone to call out-of-area emergency contact.
• Name
• Name of Conference or Sponsoring Department

Wait for instruction after an evacuation. Be patient. Listen to SU bulletins and updates on the Stanford Emergency Information Hotlines and on KZSU (90.1 FM)

Stanford Conferences EMERGENCY INFORMATION

FIRE • POLICE • MEDICAL EMERGENCY
On campus ................................................................. 9-911
Off campus pay phones or SLAC ........................................... 911
(Outdoor blue tower phones will automatically reach 911 operator)
Crothers Front Desk ............................................................. 650-721-2765*
Lagunita Front Desk ......................................................... 650-736-9990*
Lasuen Front Desk ............................................................... 650-723-8004*
Munger Front Desk ............................................................... 650-723-3225*
Rains Front Desk ................................................................. 650-725-4739*
Wilbur Front Desk ............................................................... 650-736-9982*

EMERGENCY INFORMATION HOTLINES (Call to hear recorded emergency bulletins)
University announcements .................................................. 650-725-5555*
Conference emergency communication line ................................ 650-723-0982
Out-of-area callers ................................................. 1-800-897-4253 or 01-602-241-6769 (int’l)
Emergency website ......................................................... http://emergency.stanford.edu
*From campus phones, dial last 5 digits

May 2016