WELCOME TO THE FARM!

“The Farm” is a campus nickname that originated from the days when horses rather than students roamed what was once the farm of university founders Leland and Jane Stanford. Today, the beautiful campus is home to a vibrant community supported by world-class academic resources, comfortable campus housing and award-winning dining.

This guide highlights the many campus resources and activities available to you during your stay. For additional information, please refer to your Conference Front Desk (CFD) welcome flyer and map, or contact your CFD staff. It’s a pleasure having you as our valued guest this summer on The Farm.

STAYING ON THE FARM

RESIDENT FELLOWS

- Stanford is a residential university where students live and learn beyond the labs and classrooms.
- Resident fellows live with students in residences all year round and play a vital role in a Stanford education.
- Please respect the living spaces of our residential staff by caring for our facilities, limiting noise, parking in designated areas, and following dorm rules and campus regulations.

CONFERENCE ID CARD

- When you check in, you will receive a Conference ID Card that will help you access the various resources in this guide.
- Conference ID Cards must bear the conference’s name and dates, as well as the cardholder’s name and signature. Stanford facilities in this guide are given a list of this summer’s conferences and dates.
- Conference ID Cards are not transferable, and can only be used during the dates of the cardholder’s conference.

INTERNET ACCESS

- The Stanford Visitor Wireless Network is available for immediate use as a click through network.
- Use the user name and password given to you by your conference contact.

POST OFFICE

- Located in White Plaza next to the Main Campus Bookstore
- Open Monday – Friday 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
- Passport applications by appointment only from Monday – Friday 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Call 650-321-4239 for an appointment.

CAMPUS SECURITY

- Lock your doors and windows, and keep valuables secured or out of sight when not in your room.
- Avoid walking or jogging alone at night, stay on well-lit paths, and remain alert to your surroundings.
- Report suspicious persons/activities or crimes in progress immediately to your Conference Front Desk staff and/or to the Stanford University Department of Public Safety.
- For emergencies, call the Stanford Police by dialing 911 from your cell phone (9-911 from any campus phone) or activate the nearest blue emergency tower.
- For non-emergency police assistance, phone (650) 329-2413 police.stanford.edu.

CAMPUS SHUTTLE

- The Marguerite is a free campus shuttle that operates Monday – Friday 6:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. except weekends and holidays.
- The shuttle serves the campus, neighboring communities, Stanford Shopping Center, Caltrain, and most public bus lines.
- Shuttle maps and schedules are available at your Conference Front Desk and at Parking & Transportation Services (P&TS), 340 Bonair Siding.
- Visit the P&TS website transportation.stanford.edu for maps and other commute assistance.

Please contact service offices directly for holiday schedules, including Independence Day and Labor Day hours and/or closures. The university will observe Independence Day on Thursday, July 4, 2019, and Labor Day on Monday, September 2, 2019. Many campus offices and services will be closed.

DINING HALLS MANAGED BY STANFORD DINING

- Conferences are expected to dine in their assigned dining halls throughout the duration of their conference.
- Please contact your program director regarding your dining hall assignment and meal schedules.

FOOD ALLERGY CONCERNS

- Stanford Dining offers various options for guests with food allergies, sensitivities and special dietary needs through our Food Allergies @ Stanford program.
- Our dining and culinary staff are trained to work with students and guests with food allergies and other special dietary needs.
- We label the following allergens in the dining halls: coconut, egg, fish, milk, peanuts, sesame, shellfish, soy, tree nuts, and wheat. We also identify items that are vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free.
- If you have a food allergy, please inform the dining hall manager so that appropriate accommodations can be made.
- We take many precautions to correctly identify ingredients and prevent cross-contact, we are unable to guarantee the absence of potential food allergens in our food or facilities.
- Please direct additional food allergy questions to nutrition@stanford.edu.
