I. About Stanford Conference Services
Stanford Conferences, a division of Residential & Dining Enterprises (R&DE), coordinates the campus arrangements for conferences held at Stanford University each summer. Our client roster includes over 285 conferences, workshops, and youth camps attended by 19,000 youth and adult participants utilizing undergraduate and graduate residences and dining halls each summer. Revenues generated by Stanford Conferences support R&DE’s mission of providing high quality services to Stanford students during the academic year while also helping to offset student room and board fees.

II. Summary of Position
Under the supervision of the Finance Manager, this position is the liaison and auditor with respect to all financial processes for the Conference Front Desk (CFDs); cash handling, billing folders and client billing for the Stanford Conference main office; maintains inventory of parking permits and performs profit and loss statements.

Tax free housing is provided during the length of your employment free of charge (subject to performance of on-call duties).

Additionally, this position provides the Stanford student perspective to clients, visitors, and staff. They offer insight on the Stanford experience and act as an advocate for the University. The knowledge of the campus gained by students during the academic year adds value to the client experience and is an important element of a successful summer. All successful candidates must be able to live on campus in a conference-occupied residence during the summer months (free of charge, subject to performance of on-call duties) which will be assigned at a later date.
